THE CONCEPT

The Macallan in Lalique IV celebrates
a fourth of The Macallan's Six Pillars,
The Curiously Small Stills

THE CURIOUSLY SMALL STILLS

EST. 1824

The Macallan Curiously Small Stills are the smallest on Speyside.

Their unique size and shape help to concentrate the ‘new make spirit’ to provide those rich, fruity, full-bodied flavours characteristic of The Macallan.

DESIGN INSPIRATION

“The design was inspired by the ‘window’ of the unusually small stills used by The Macallan. The compact shape and size of the decanter bring to mind these uniquely shaped copper stills.”

Marc Larminaux | DESIGNER, LALIQUE

THE MACALLAN 60 YEARS OLD

- > One of the oldest, rarest and most valuable single malt whiskies from The Macallan ever bottled by the distillery, only surpassed by The Macallan in Lalique 'Cire Perdue' 64 years old
- > Retail price: US$20,000 per decanter
- > Only 400 decanters will be available worldwide
- > First decanters will be available for shipment in October 2011

THE MACALLAN 60 YEARS OLD

The Macallan 60 Years Old has been drawn from five sherry butts, made from both Spanish and American oak, filled over two days, the 9th and 10th November, 1950.

The result is a complex, full and mouth-coating example of this great single malt from an era when smoky aromas and flavours mixed with the sweeter, spicy and dried fruit character of modern day Macallan.
